1. Welcome and Introductions

Anthony Rubio welcomed everyone in attendance no introductions needed.

2. Approval of Agenda

The agenda was approved as written. Motion approved unanimously.

3. Approval of Minutes

The minutes were approved as written. Motion approved unanimously.

Information Items:

4. Mentor Interest Card Revision

The requests for on-site mentoring continue to be received. Most of these requests are for help with Autism and challenging behaviors. We have received requests from Riverside County, but are unable to provide services outside of San Bernardino County.

5. Current Trainings Report

All trainings are continuing as scheduled. All the trainings held in San Bernardino have been full with some participants coming from Riverside County. The High Desert trainings regularly have openings. The group talked about possible ways of increasing the marketing effort in the High Desert area.

6. SB 1703 Sustainability

Nancy reported that there has been no news about SB 1703 being re-funded. Anthony mentioned that Pat Talley reported at the recent Child Care Planning Council meeting that SB 1703 was not likely to be re-funded. The committee discussed the importance of trying to find funding to continue this project.

7. Next Meeting

The group decided to skip the December meeting and reconvene during our regularly scheduled time in January. Therefore, the meeting will be held at Kidship on January 24th @ 1:30pm.
